

Name: _____

Period: _____

THE REFORMATION MAP ACTIVITY

Directions: _____ / 12

Given the descriptions on the reverse side, color the countries or empires with the corresponding colors. Also, make predictions for the rest of the Reformation Unit.

EUROPE IN THE 16TH CENTURY

Descriptions:

1. In 1517, Martin Luther posted the 95 Theses on the door of the Wittenberg Church in Germany. Color the German Empire blue
2. King Henry VIII changed the whole country of England to a Protestant country after his divorce to Catherine of Aragon. Color England blue.
3. Mary I (King Henry VIII's 1st daughter) married King Phillip II of Spain and formed a strong alliance for many years to come. Color Spain red.
4. Italy the home of the Catholic Church and the Renaissance continued to flourish throughout the 16th century. Color Italy red.
5. King Phillip II of Spain controlled Portugal as well. Color Portugal red.
6. Mary I of England also controlled Scotland. Color Scotland blue.
7. Catherine de Medici sponsored a mass killing of French Protestants (Huguenots) known as the St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre in France. Color France red.

Observations & Predictions:

1. The red color countries are _____.
2. The blue color countries are _____.
3. Western Europe during the 16th century predominately believed in _____.
4. Eastern Europe during the 16th century was predominately _____.
5. Northern Europe during the 16th century was mostly _____.
6. Southern Europe during the 16th century was predominately _____.
7. After the marriage to a Catholic king by Queen Mary I in 1554, do you predict that England will change BACK to a Catholic country? Why or why not? _____

8. The Huguenots are beginning to gain strength in France. After the St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre in 1572, do you predict France will begin to allow religious toleration in the near future? Why or why not? _____

